

2024 Syllabus for Composition

North London Festival of Music,
Speech and Drama:

Monday 11 to Friday 31 March

and

Saturday 15 April – Friday 10 May

Composition Competitions at 3 pm on Sunday 5 May

Venue: Hampstead Garden Suburb Free Church, Central Square, NW11 7AG

Adjudicator: Glyn Devey

Information and Rules of Entry

Compositions can be performed live, or a CD or other recording provided before the day of adjudication. All compositions must be presented with a commentary to introduce the piece prior to its performance.

To be eligible for 700 to 703, pieces must be composed using the fifteen Starting Points for Composition. These are on page 3 of this section syllabus and can also be downloaded from the Composition page of the Festival website:
www.northlondonfestival.org.uk.

The timings below refer to the maximum length of performance including the commentary presentation.

The Music Master Publications Ltd will award book prizes to the winners of each category, and an overall winner will receive the title, 'North London Festival Best Composer' and will be presented with a certificate and trophy during the end of Festival concert on Friday 10 May 2024.

Starting Points for Composition

1. Compose a solo piece for the pianoforte — any style.
2. Compose a piece which explores counterpoint — free choice of instruments, but no more than five.
3. Compose a Pop Song - must include both chorus and verse.
4. Compose a piece for any stringed instrument — free choice.
5. Compose a piece which reflects an important feature of the Classical era (1750—1800).
6. Compose a piece which reflects an important feature of the Late Romantic era (1850—1900).
7. Compose a piece for three different instruments. Each instrument must belong to a different family.
8. Compose a piece which explores and challenges the playing techniques of a solo instrument of your choice.
9. Compose a piece with two contrasting sections.
10. Compose a piece which explores musical movements of the 20th century; for example, minimalism, serialism, aleatoric music etc.
11. Compose a soundtrack suitable for a film scene. This could be for a well-known film or an imaginary scene.
12. Compose a piece which represents a jazz style (free choice).
13. Compose a percussion piece to celebrate an African harvest festival.
14. Compose a piece inspired by a poem. This could be a well-known poem, or a poem you have written yourself.
15. Compose a piece which brings together two different cultures.

Building your Commentary

When writing your commentary please consider the three questions below:

1. What were the stimuli or starting points for your composition?
2. What compositional processes and developments did you explore/discover whilst composing your piece?
3. What challenges did you encounter relating to instruments, textures, and playing techniques?

NORTH LONDON FESTIVAL OF MUSIC, SPEECH & DRAMA

For each entry dependent on age, it is the age on 1st September 2023 so that all the entrants in a class are in the same school year.

If an entrant has been a pupil of the Adjudicator in the year prior to the Festival or is well-known to the Adjudicator, they should contact the Section Head before entering.
